Main Meeting

The main event started at 2:30pm in the Rana Tamuly Memorial Auditorium of Golaghat Commerce College, anchored by Mr. Bhaskar Kakoty, Asst. Professor, Dept. of Pol. Science. The 'Meet' took off with arrival of the alumni and their welcome by the anchor. The welcome was followed by the invitation of the Principal to chair the meeting. Other dignitaries – Vice Principal, President and Secretary of the Alumni Association also graced the dais.

The objective of the meet was delivered by the anchor. Mr. Kakoty stated that the meeting was a step towards enlivening the association and ensuring a better future for it as the alumni association is an indispensable part of any educational institution. The objective was followed by the welcome address delivered by the Principal of G.C.C., Dr. Utpal Sarma. In his speech, he emphasized on the importance of the role played by an alumni association in the overall upliftment of an educational institute. He stated that there are certain responsibilities on their part that needs to be fulfilled and as many of the alumni have been away from the institution since years, it's high time to foster new ties and strengthen the association. He also remarked, "An active alumni portal is the need of the hour!"

After the welcome address, there was an icebreaking session where all the alumni introduced themselves. The introductory session was followed by speeches given by alumni from various batches. Mr. Bhajan Lal Jitani, an alumni from the pioneer batch (1972) showered words of appreciation to the Principal for arranging the meet. Another alumni, Mr. Pradip Goswami from 1979 batch stated that donations should be made by the Alumni in whatever amount possible to strengthen their hold on the greater Golaghat Commerce College family. Many other alumni emphasized on the importance of conducting events at regular intervals involving them. Mr. Amrit Hazarika from 1988 batch reminisced early days and stressed on their continual co-operation with the institution in multifarious ways.

After the speeches, the B.Com. batch of 2013 handed over a printer to the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the college for the benefit of students and as a token of their love and respect for their alma mater. Dr. Pranjal Pratim Dutta, IQAC Coordinator, thanked the entire batch and also emphasized that initiative has been taken to strengthen connectivity with the alumni through Google forms for their registration and feedback.

Immediately after, a speech was given by Shankar Routh, President of the Alumni Association and thereafter the old committee was dissolved and a new one was formed with everyone's approval.

A Glimpse of the Meet

Outcome

The Alumni Meet was encouraging and simultaneously profitable as most of the alumni shared their views and a good number of ideas, information, and insights came up. The association is hopeful to run and successfully structure and position itself into a fully functional platform for the G.C.C. Alumni. The Alumni Association sincerely expressed its gratitude to the honourable Principal for his guidance and support in making the event a grand success.
