Organiser (s)	Department of Assamese in collaboration with Women’s Cell

A discussion on “Position of Women in Indian Society: A Historical Perspective” was held on 29th August, 2016. The programme was a joint initiative of Department of Assamese and Women’s Cell, Golaghat Commerce College. The invited speakers highlighted the position of women in Indian Society in a historical perspective. Addressing the gathering, the Principal Mr. Anup Kumar Das, pointed out the importance of mapping the revolutionary journey of Indian women from antiquity to the contemporary times. The programme was attended by Mr. Cheniram Nath, Associate Professor & HOD, department of Assamese, Dr. Rajib Lochan Bora, Associate Professor, department of English along with the faculty members and the students of Department of Assamese. An interesting interactive session among the students and the resource person was followed by the speech.

2. Awareness Programme on Eradication of Social Evils and Legal Awareness in Rural Society

At the initiative of Equal Opportunity Cell, An Awareness Programme was organized on Eradication of Social Evils and Legal Awareness in Rural Society on 29th June, 2017 at Teteliguri, Gomariguri, Golaghat. The programme aimed to provide awareness and knowledge on various legal provisions for social violence, consumer protection and IPR. It was attended by the villagers of Teteliguri and the staff of Golaghat Commerce College. The program commenced with a welcome address delivered by Mr. Biswajyoti Doley, Convenor of Equal Opportunity Cell in which he highlighted the importance of organising such a programme and addressed the issue of prevalence of witch hunting and witchcraft in North East India. Following him, Dr. Jatindra Nath Saikia, Principal, Golaghat Commerce College too welcomed the audience. He stated the urgency of organising this programme in rural places where witch hunting largely takes place. He maintained that the lack of proper education among indigenous people and the government's failure to provide required aids can be considered two of the primary reasons behind the birth of such a heinous crime. Mr. Jadav Mech, Secretary District Legal Services Authority in his speech shared multiple stories of witch hunting from Assam. He stressed on the fact that laws against witch hunting are not enough to curb its prevalence. He emphasized that witch hunting can be completely eradicated only by collective efforts of both common people and the law. Mr. Nitul Bora, Golaghat Bar Association in his speech focused on the roles educational institutions can play in abolition of the practice of witch-hunting. The faculty members and the local villagers also shared their experiences and interacted with the distinguished Resource Persons. The vote of thanks was delivered by Mr. Bhaskar Kakati, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science.
