A Report on a Faculty and Student Exchange Programme:

On 23rd March 2021, the Principal of Furkating College communicated with the Principal of Golaghat Commerce College with a proposition of organizing a “Faculty and Student Exchange Programme” vide letter FKGC/FSEP/2021. On that account, a proposal for collaboration with two other institutions including the host college was put forwarded.

An educational institution is committed to imbibe the culture of comradeship by offering opportunities to interact with the students and faculty of other institutions by a way of exchange. Especially, the student along with the faculty needs to be encouraged to participate in such exchange programmes. With that intent in mind, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell, Golaghat Commerce College took the initiative and organized accordingly.
