

Report on the Programme “Celebration of International Pi Day”

Date : 15.03.2021 (Monday)

Department of Mathematics & Statistics Celebrated the “International Pi Day “ on 15/03.2021 (Monday). The programme was hosted by the HOD Dr. Karabi Devi.

The Object of the programme was narrated by Dr. Laba Handique, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Mathematics & Statistics. The Keynote address was delivered by the respected Principal Dr. Utpal Sarma. He discussed about the history of pi and its applications in various fields. The Technical Session was delivered by the Resource Person. Dr. Surajit Dutta, Principal of C N B College, Bokakat was invited as the Resource Person. He delivered on the History of Pi and about the mathematicians behind the approximations on Pi and the Significance of Pi day. In Interactive and discussion session, Vice Principal Mr. Paresh Saikia, Mrs. Anamika Hazarika, HOD of Assamese Dept, Mr. Arindam Bora, Dept of Economics gave their valuable views on the topic. Vote of thanks was given by Mrs. Tulumoni Gogoi, Assistant professor Dept of Mathematics & Statistics.

Years after years it gained popularity and finally, the U.S House of Representatives passed HRES 224 on 12 March, 2009, recognizing 14 March as Pi Day.

